Explore Character Traits

Inspired by The Mouse and the Motorcycle and Instructional Coach Shannon Langston

Character traits are the parts of someone's personality that make them special. Inferences are what we can learn about a character based on their actions.

Choose a character from The Mouse and the Motorcycle: _____

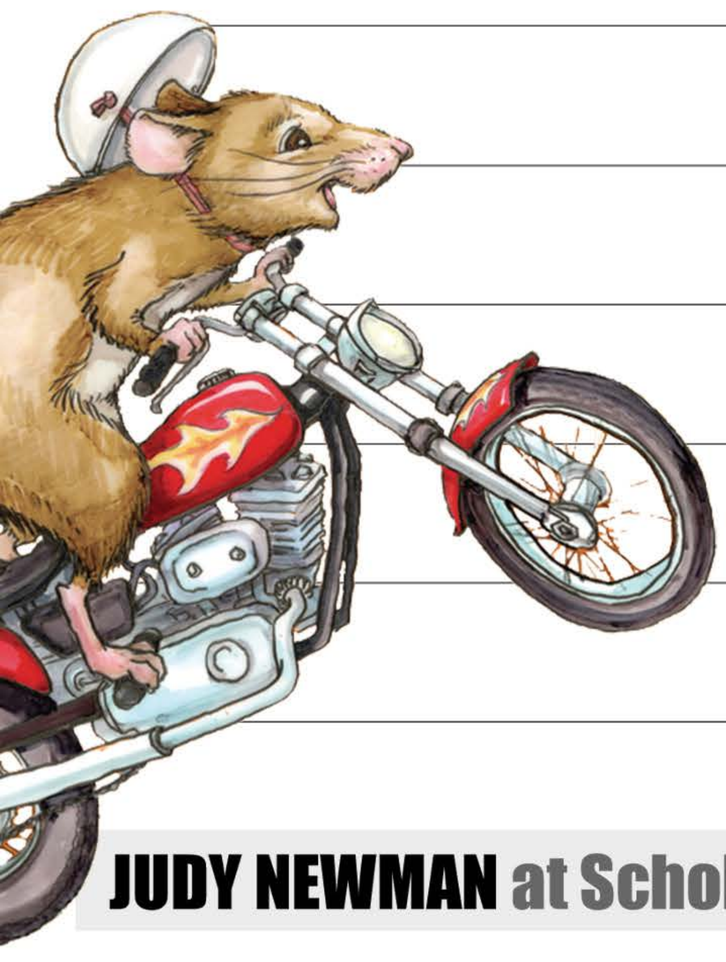
What can you infer about your character's traits based on their actions in the story?

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____


Provide examples from the book to support your answer.